GNI Chare

GNI (Global Network Initiative) is a multi-stakeholder initiative to promote respect for fundamental human rights and principles of freedom of expression while ensuring that digital platforms are secure and free from terrorism-related content. GNI advocates for principles that reflect the goals of the UN Principles on the Protection of Journalism, the Human Rights Council, and the International Telecommunications Regulations. GNI works with governments, companies, and civil society to ensure that digital platforms can be trusted to contribute to global prosperity and human rights.
